Business Challenge:

GoFrugal Technologies head quartered in Chennai, offers complete automation for retail and distribution business. RayMedi Head Quarter (HQ) a Retail Chain Management solution from Gofrugal Technologies is web-based, easy-to-use software which gives more control in managing chain of shops.

RayMedi HQ supports multiple databases and wanted a solution to manage the data across multiple databases. The Data Migration solution has to perform repetitive migration from Oracle to MySQL vice versa involving migration over 500 tables. Migration requirement was purely driven by customer needs because of cost, performance, scalability and reliability factors of the underlying database. As frequent migration is involved GoFrugal were looking for a simple, easy to handle and high performance data migration solution.

The solution:

GoFrugal did a proof of concept (POC) using SwisSQL Data Migration and were impressed with the quality and rate of migration. The POC involved a subset of their database and were carried out in a week. Once the POC was completed, GoFrugal started using SwisSQL Data Migration for their regular migration requirement.
